Editorial and Production Team: The authors' products were organized, edited and formatted by an editorial and production team of dedicated professionals who are responsible for the 2002 Everglades Consolidated Report. The exceptional teamwork and productivity of these individuals are respectfully acknowledged: Felicia Berger, Chris Burns, Ken Chen, Penny Dellinger, Christopher King, Trudy Morris, Diane Bello-Smith and Carrie L. Trutwin.

Other Contributors: In recognition that many individuals support the diverse activities necessary to complete the Report and conduct its intensive peer review, both agencies also recognize individuals from the District's Environmental Monitoring and Assessment Department, who provided essential data analyses and technical assessments for multiple chapters and appendices in the Report: Tim Bechtel, Larry Fink, Guy Germain, Steven Hill, Nenad Iricanin, Cheol Mo, Richard Pfeuffer and Darren Rumbold. In addition, the following individuals from the District's EMA department are acknowledged for their vital assistance in conducting the peer review and public workshops: Jo Armstrong, Andrea Carlton, Linda Davis, Barbara Dickey and Mary Skinner.

The District's Garth Redfield manages the Report development process in association with Gary Goforth and Keith Rizzardi. These editors work closely with Frank Nearhoof of the Department's Everglades Technical Support Unit to coordinate the creation of this joint product. This large, multidisciplinary Report could not be produced without the thoughtful oversight of senior management. In particular, the effective leadership of Naomi Duerr, Debra Azeredo and Linda Lindstrom from the District, and Jerry Brooks from the Department, are gratefully acknowledged.
